

Please Do NOT implement airport-like screening on Washington State ferries. It would make life for those of us who live on the islands impossible. Perhaps some screening is necessary on the international runs, but not on the local runs. Back-ups would be totally unworkable. These are water highways. If you screen them, you must screen the pavement highways, too. There is no difference.